

Bride-to-be, this one's for you!

Marriages have always been an integral part of Indian society. With weddings come a lot of planning and stressful hours.

Fashion store Amara at Kemps Corner understands the need for perfection in every aspect of the Indian wedding, and therefore brings onto one platform all wedding-related queries. Presenting Archana Kochchar's exclusive cocktail line in gowns and sarees; today, brides no longer want traditional Indian wear for all their functions. The need for variety has led to the introduction of gowns in the big fat Indian wedding. Archana's creations fill this void, giving clients the Western silhouette with Indian sensibilities.

The perfect wedding ensemble needs the perfect accessories — Meera Mahadevia and Kan Accessories by Neomy Khatau bring their wedding collection to complete every bride's dream.

Along with the designers, clients will have an opportunity to consult with renowned make-up artist Vipul Bhagat, wedding planner Candice Pereira and trousseau packing expertise Deepali, today from 5-7 pm.

Archana Kochchar, Iris and Deepa Dholakia